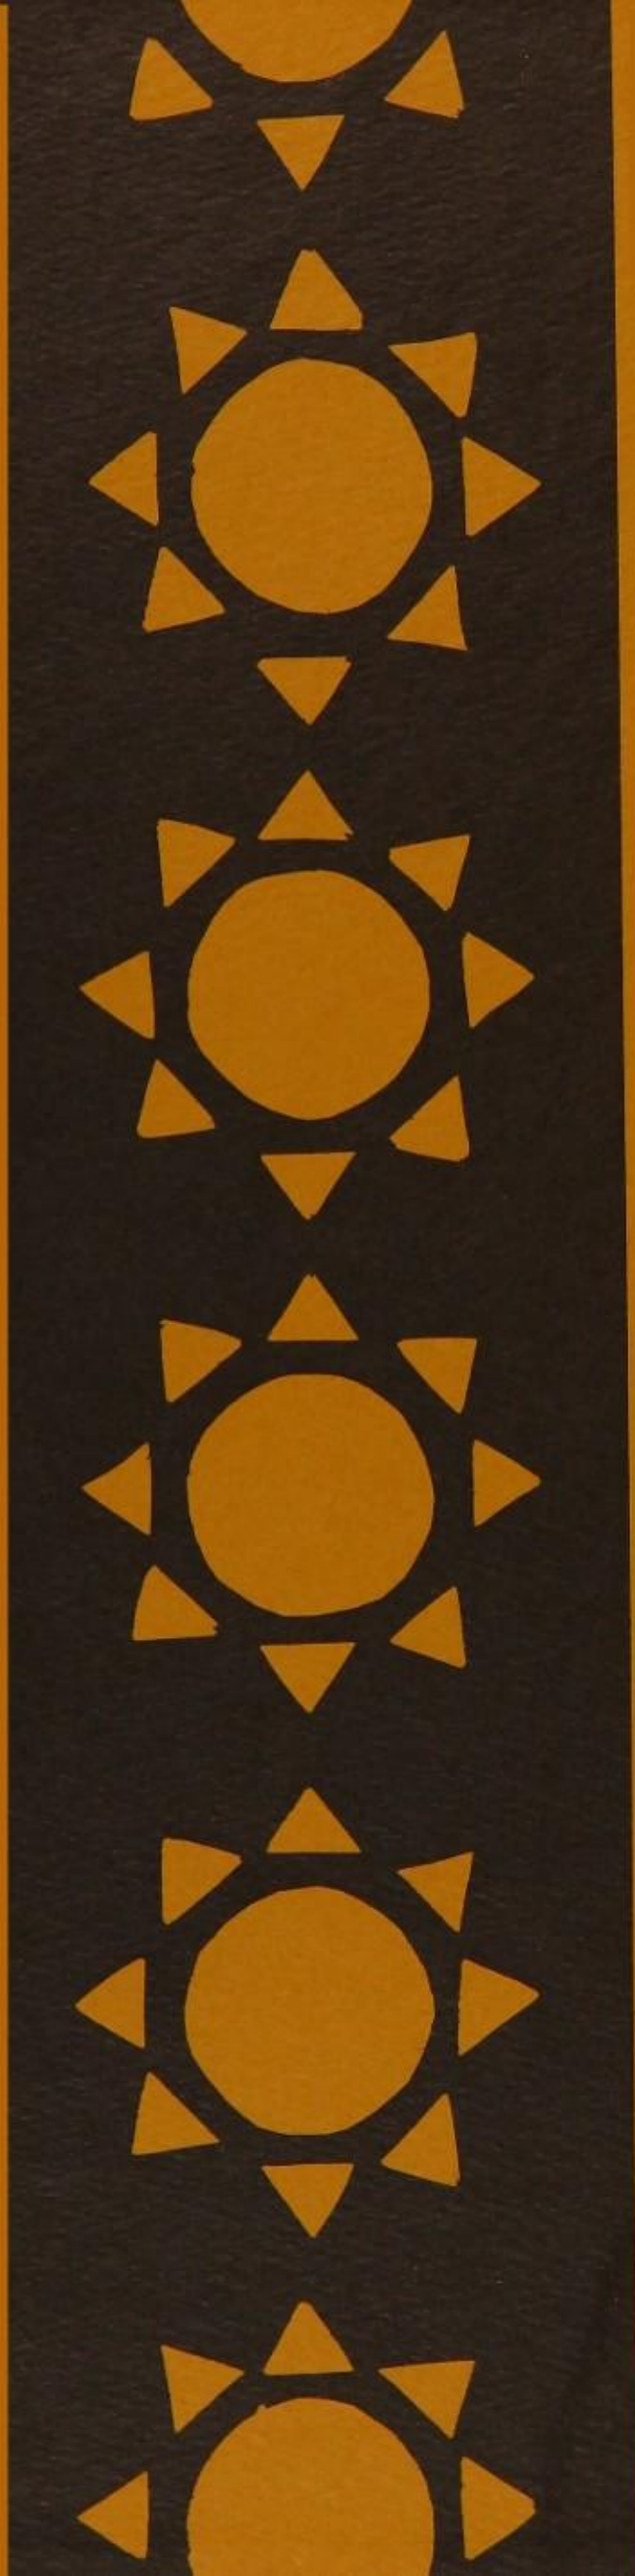
NEW HORIZONS '74



sleepy joe

dreaming star, wake up.
there's a new day
waiting breathlessly
on tiptoe
for all you can bring to life.
in the early dawn
the sun must make the first move to meet the day
slowly,
conscientiously;
peacefully unruffled by time,
circumstance or people.
shouldn't you
(day by day)
lift yourself as high as the sky?
and if you happen to fall
over the horizon
time after time,
the burden of life will turn ice
blue with experience.
someday
when you have lived the whole day of your life
you will see how beautiful your sunset is.
you have to start today though.
someday there may not be another.
even the worst is real.
and if the sun,
who has no mind
can love enough
to die and rise
each and every day for an eternity,
what does your humanity mean if
you say,
"i can't"?
you can't turn your back on love
and haven't you been loved
more than you could ever know?
sleepy joe,
you can make it,
you can
if you want.

I'LL THINK OF YOU

I'll think of you when dawn begins to rise,
And lights the golden glow in childrens eyes,
And paints each tiny unborn bud with dew,
When day is golden; I will think of you.

I'll think of you in winter's icy blast,
In Fall's reminder of a summer past,
And in each spring when, with uncertain cue,
Each pale green leaf bursts moistly forth, anew.

I'll think of you when shadows steal the light,
And bathe the world in diamond-studded nights,
That wakes the forest creatures from the hill,
And makes the fawn's dark eyes grow darker still

And when a rainbow arches o'er the sky,
To welcome little vessels sailing by,
And colors every ripple on the sea,
And awes the world, then I will think of thee.

I have come to think that one of the most satisfying experiences I know, and also one of the most growth-promoting experiences for the other person is just fully to appreciate this individual in the same way, appreciate a sunset.

People are just as wonderful as sunsets if I can just let them be. In fact, perhaps the reason we can truly appreciate a sunset is that we cannot control it.

When I look at a sunset, I don't find myself saying: "soften the orange a little on the right hand corner, and put on a bit more purple along the base, and use a little more pink in the clouds," I don't do that!

I don't try to control a sunset. I watch it with awe as it unfolds, I like myself best when I can experience people in the same way, appreciating the unfolding of a life.

A person who is loved appreciately, not possessively, blooms and develops his own unique self. The person who loves non-possesively is himself enriched!

Where I am going, and What I believe in.

Administrators

S. Rosemary ... What major goal do you hope to achieve while at Marywood? ... To create an atmosphere wherein the entire Marywood Community finds joy and fulfillment in taking part in a total learning experience that provides the best Christian education possible. I know that alone I cannot achieve this goal. We can. It is by working together, with God's help, that we will.

S. Margaret Maureen ... How has Marywood changed you? ... Marywood girls have made me conscious of warmth and friendliness ... They have shown me that they have much to offer in shaping the direction and the character of a school.

S. Estelle ... How do you like life in California as opposed to life in New York? ... Here I teach what I actually produced in New York; here I work with the students in a learning situation. In New York I worked with critics, media experts and printers in an actual publishing situation.

S.Rosemary, Principal

S. Margaret Maureen, V. Prin.

Miss Lambert, Counselor

S. Estelle, Public Relations

Mr. Sifuentes, Librarian

S. Marie Jeanette, Dir. of Maintenance

S. Joan, Treasurer

S. David, Registrar

Mrs. Powell, Secretary

S. Joan ... What do you see from office window at Marywood? ... happiness ... smiles ... frowns ... looks of preoccupation ... lace on underwear ... concern ... tears ... heart-to-heart talks ... races with the bell ... excitment ... concentrated study ... chatting ... singing ... dancing ... teasing ... ride waiters ... short skirts and legs, legs, legs ... sun worship.

S. David ... What do the names Josephine and Petunia mean to you? ... Exactly that!!!!!

If you could say anything in the world to the girls of Marywood, what would you say? Mrs. Powell ... I've never seen anything like the spirit shown by the girls here. Keep it up—The world needs more intelligent, independent women.

S. Marie Jeanette ... May Jesus and Mary guide you through life. Bring them your joys and your sorrows. Maintain peace in your heart and a smile on your face.

Mr. Sifuentes ... I think that Marywood girls are responding to the challenge of liberation with grace, courtesy, and kindness.

S. Clarice . . . English . . . What is the happiest time you have had so far this year? . . . Perhaps the most hilariously happy moment that I experienced this fall was the one I enjoyed while watching Notre Dame win the victory over the predictably invincible Trojans.

Miss Almas . . . English . . . History . . . What everyday event would you compare to life at Marywood? . . . I don't know if you can call it an everyday event, but the one I chose to compare to Marywood is my family. To me, both represent love, friendship, and a sense of belonging. Marywood to me is more than a school or a job. It is a family that works, plays, prays, and eats together. Sometimes, like a family, we don't always get along, but in times of need we all pull together. Although it has been said that one can't choose a family, I did choose Marywood and I am pleased and proud of both.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell . . . Religion, French . . . What would you like to tell Marywood girls? . . . To remember that God calls us to sunrises and sunsets, walks on the beach listening to the waves, to take time to feel the wind, the water, the earth. To get in touch with themselves recognizing the imprint of the Father in nature.

S. Colette

Mrs. Carden ... Drama ... Do you find Marywood changed in any way from the way it was last time you were here? ... I find that Marywood is essentially the same as it was a year and a half ago. Perhaps there is more eagerness for cooperation between the music and drama departments so our productions will be bigger and better!

S.Paula ... Religion ... Art ... Yearbook ... What trait have you noticed in your freshmen this year that sets them apart from other classes? ... This freshman class has a personality all its own- their spirit is expressed in gentle, beautiful ways. I had very little trouble learning to like them. They're great and I thank Jesus for them.

S.Colette ... Language Lab Director ... What are some of your impressions of Marywood this year? ... an improved spirit ... seniors show positive leadership ... Bless them, an admirable maturity ... The president and other officers of the ninth grade seem excellent also.

S.Agnes Isabel ... Music ... What exciting happening do you treasure of these first months of school? ... Meeting the girls after their summer vacation. Their enthusiam, spirit, just being so alive and anxious to start a New Year.

S.Mary Frances ... Religion ... What "happening" at Marywood do you like the most and why? ... I think Marywood is the "happening" I like the most-that word has come to mean things like the excitement of girls who are glad with one another-like the first day back in September, or the school song after a Volleyball game, or the clapping and cheering at the Talent Show, or the really happy laughing and sharing between classes or at the break. The word Marywood means the seriousness of a fire drill, the responsibility of a G.A.A. Grade School Tournament, the prayerfulness at a school Mass, the intenseness of a faculty meeting. It means waving across the patio, running to beat the bell, worrying through a test, and caring for another girl's worry. I think the whole of Marywood life-its really sincere teachers and its enthusiastically alive girls-is the happening I like the most.

Givers of Knowledge

Mrs. Jenkins

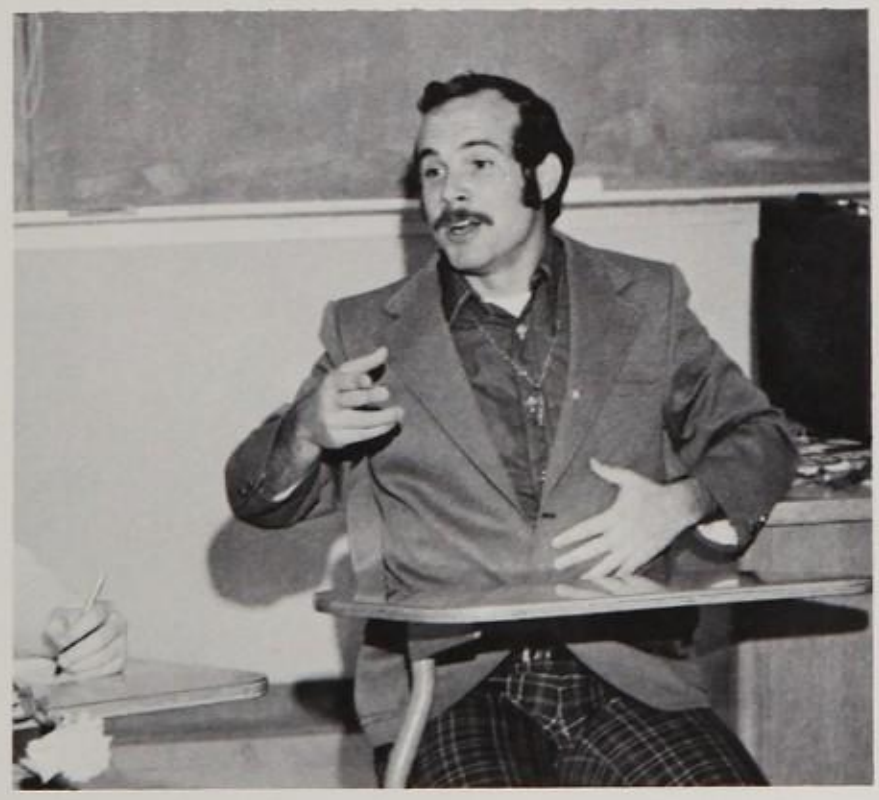
S. Leone Therese

S. Leone Therese ... ESL ... Reading ... What new ideas have you used this year? ... The whole remedial program is new ... especially notable is the fact that the students may pick their own reading material from a Scholastic Catalogue several times a year. ... This year the Spanish girls have time in class to talk with American students to aid their development of conversational English. Visual flashcards are being bought for the first year students so that they may become more familiar with words in use as well as the regular vocabulary.

Mr. Leipert ... Religion ... What would you most like to say to the students through the yearbook? ... I have grown to appreciate deeply the sensitivity and warmth that women, even young women, bring to a cold, business-like world. I especially enjoyed playing the male chauvinist, with all the kidding on both sides. The girls have retaught me the valuable lesson that everyone needs to be understood and taken seriously.

Miss Johnson ... Guitar ... Choral ... Speech ... What musical instrument would you most like to be and why? ... This is the most difficult and perplexing question, as there are a number of musical instruments I would enjoy being. At times I would like to be loud and demanding, as a timpani; or perhaps soft and flowing as a flute; at times I would like to be held close, and strummed gently as a guitar; and then there are times I need to be pounded hard as a piano. All the instruments have certain sounds I would like to make at times. I guess the only solution, my real desire, is to be the WHOLE orchestra! La-da-dee-da!!

S. Agnes Aloyse



Mr. Leipert

S. Helen Rose

Educators

Mrs. Parsons ... Business Department ... What words best describe your year so far? ... The words that best describe my year so far are: challenging, exciting and breathless. New courses, many meetings, evaluating the business department and compiling a department handbook have made time a precious thing. However, it is most gratifying. It is wonderful to be a part of a growing, changing, and dedicated school. May the atmosphere continue.

S. Suzanne ... Home Ec ... Cafeteria ... What new attitude or event have you noticed at Marywood this year? ... Event ... Nutrition Break ... Attitude ... Smiling faces, happy people, interesting spirit, great hope for the future.

S. Helen Rose ... Latin ... Express your feelings and hopes concerning Marywood girls. I wish that the Latin students will keep "in memoria" this quotation from St. John ... "Haec scripsi vobis ut sciatis quoniam vitam habetis aeternam, qui creditis in nomine Filii Dei."

S. Sheila ... Music ... What song expresses your feelings for Marywood and why? Song: "The Hills Are Alive with the Sound of Music" ... because Marywood is beautiful and more so by music.

Mr. Santos ... Spanish ... What has impressed you most about this school year? ... The atmosphere and happiness of the students have impressed me the most this school year. Everyone seems to be very helpful. The Student Body officers have been efficient.

S. Pauline ... Math ... Physics ... Photography ... What would you most like to say to the school? ... Always tomorrow, new horizons, old friends.

Mrs. Sweeney ... English ... What would you like to say to the school if you could say anthing at all? ... Being at Marywood now is proof that I am living right! Each day I anticipate with enthusiasm the challenge of teaching in this ambience of culture, spirit and love.

S. Pauline and Cindy Phillips

Ms. Schutte and Yolie Kinsman

Ms. Schutte ... Yearbook ... Art ... What is the main difference you have noticed between Marywood and other schools? ... A certain vitality sparks the people at Marywood—a gratifying serve-and-learn spirit ... here there is a love for "feminine" fun and yet an avid educational attitude ... "up on the hill" we can be away from social hub-bub and still have the freedom to create a more beautiful part of us to add to that society. In other situations one often finds administrative hassle and paperwork that forbids REAL academic leadership. Our doors are and should be always open to the larger world and to new innovations in growth patterns. I believe at Marywood the climate is right and the stage is set.

ASB Promotes Spirit

Through the efficient work of the '73-74 ASB officers, the school year was filled with many well-planned events. Jeanne Wilson, Kathy Snitzler, Bunny Stickler and Nancy Reid worked together with the students and faculty to coordinate Marywood functions as well as interschool activities.

Forum and Cabinet

The Forum representatives, as the voice of the students, bring various ideas to the administration's attention. Problems in the parking lot and spirit month were some of the issues discussed. The make-up of the Forum gives the students a chance to express their ideas and get involved in the workings of student government.

The Cabinet members organized many activities for the students in the school and community this year. With Yvonne Lang as social coordinator, Karen Piasta and Kris Krummenacher heading Pep, Fran Hickman as dance coordinator, and Kathy Pomykata and Tish Quinn heading publicizing functions, events were carried out efficiently.

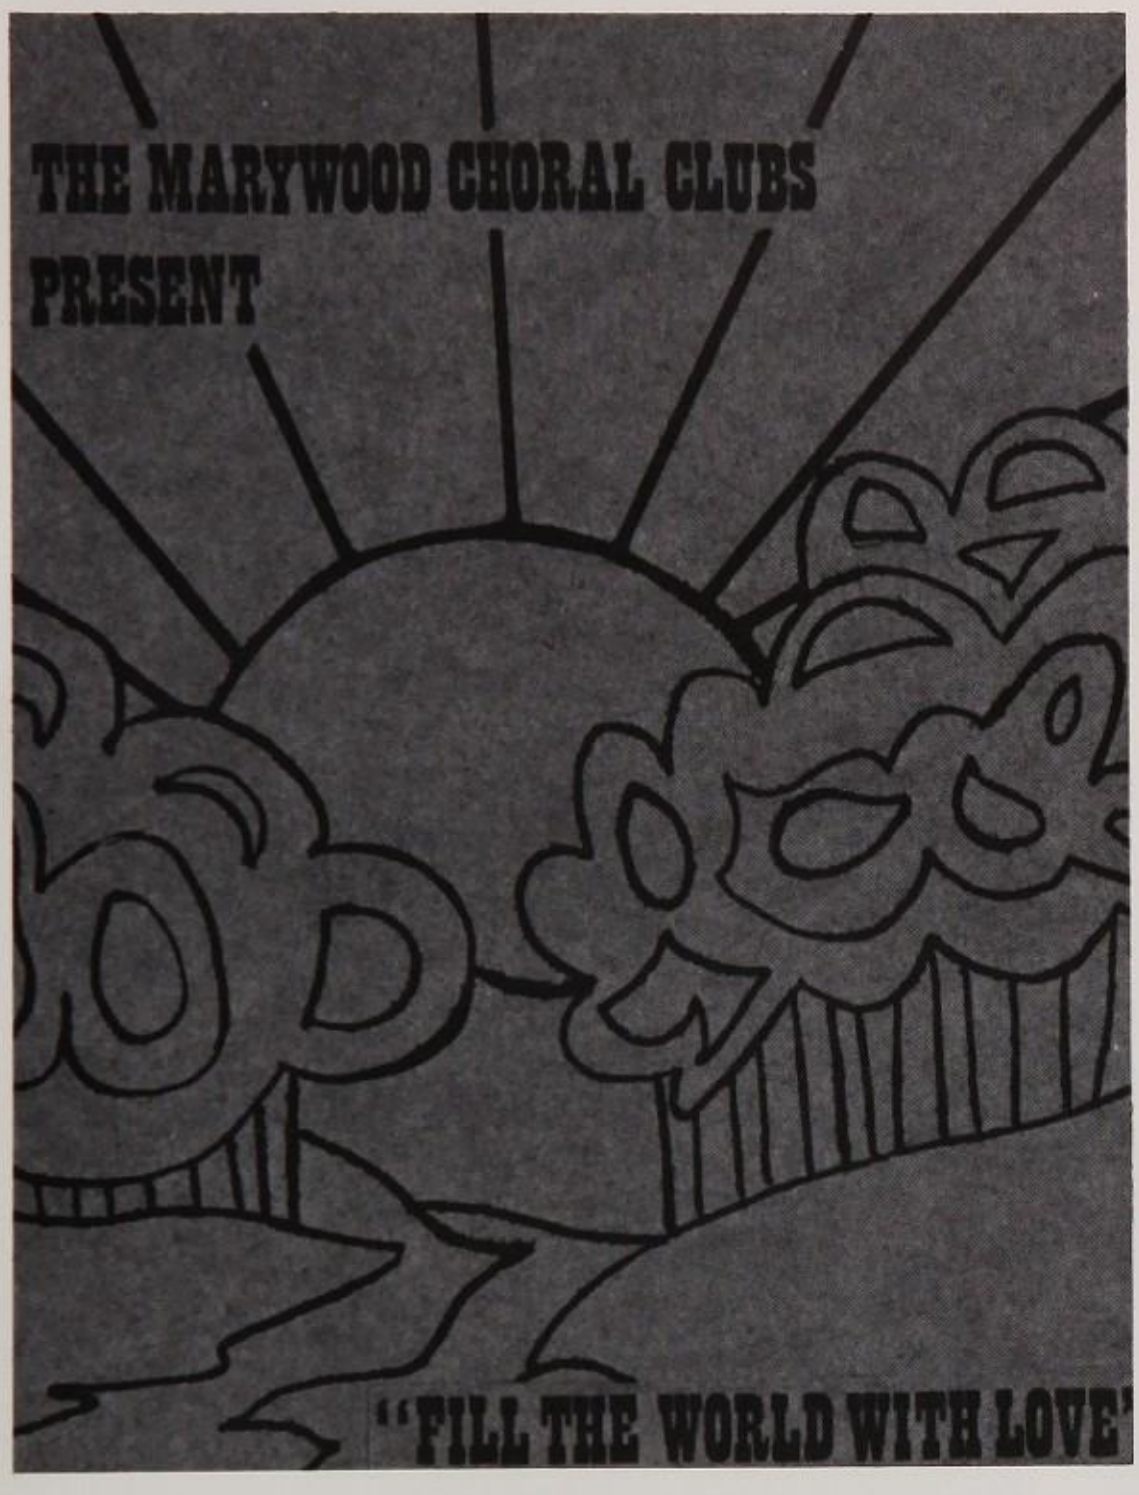
Concerts



This year, under the new direction of Ms. Pam Johnson, the Choral Clubs presented visually vibrant concerts. The concerts ranged from yesterday and today "pop", familiar reditions of Christmas favorites, to the lively music of Godspell. The shows featured several soloists displaying the splendid talent of Marywood.

The musical "Bye-Bye Birdie" was presented by Marywood's own choral clubs. The musical was based on Elvis Presley's draft into the army in the 50's. One lucky girl was chosen in a contest to win Conrad Birdie's good-bye kiss. With much rehearsing and backstage help, the musical proved to be very entertaining, especially to those who remember the "good old days".

Language and Learning

The Latin Club and Elle-Elle form part of the school's foundation. The Latin Club is advised by S. Helen Rose and lead by student leader Tony La Rocca. Elle-Elle is headed by S. Colette.

Ecology Club

Concerned with the environment, the ecology club sponsored the aluminum can drive this year. The officers are Sharon Pfeifer, Sec., Tish Quinn, V.Pres., Donna Wright, Pres., and Bobbie Huttenhower, Treas.

Science Club

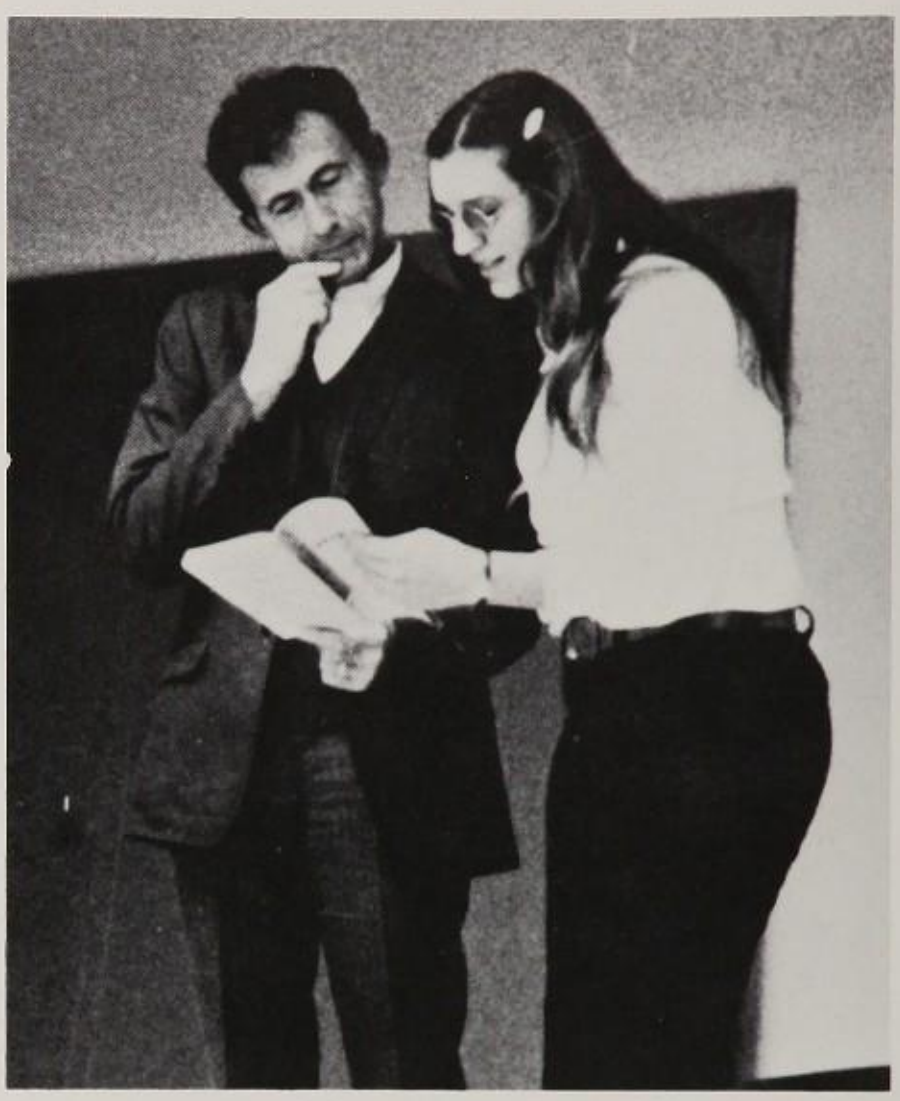
Thespians Bring You "Years Ago"



The comedy "Years Ago," an autobiography written by Ruth Gordon, tells about her struggles to be an actress in the time when actresses were not accepted in society. Through a lot of hard work and rehearsals the Thespians produced a successful play. The play was put on in late March and was immensely enjoyed.

Thespian officers: L To R: Cathy Manning, Fran Hickman, Jane Beemer, Janea Caglia, Tracy LaBarber, and Mrs. Carden, director.

Creative Expressions

Art and Drama are two forms of creative expression which Marywood students participate in. The Art Club, headed by Ms. Schutte, utilize some techniques such as painting, silk screening, and sketching. These techniques are used in making posters announcing school activities for the Parent's Club, Spring Musical, and various concerts.

The Thespians, headed by Mrs. Carden, work to put on plays and skits during the year. Through a lot of hard work and rehearsals, the club produced the play, "Years Ago", an autobiography of a young girl struggling to be an actress during the time when actresses were not accepted in society. The club's successful and artful performances were well-lauded by the Marywood community.

Christmas Bazaar

The Parent's Club takes an active part in planning many activities. One of the greatest projects of the Club's is the annual Christmas Bazaar. Headed by Mrs. John Sharpe, the bazaar featured a Mexican dinner, boutique, dime toss and crafted goods.

"Swing Into Summer" featured warm weather attire modeled by professionals as well as Marywood students Cathy Manning, Kathy Snitzler, Oonagh Devlin, Debbie Weiss, Elaine Hanlon, Dina DeSimone, Karen Eikmeyer, and Kathy Mendrella. Mrs. Eileen DeSantis was chairman of the fashion show which was held on campus. All agreed it was an enjoyable event. Music was provided by the "Axis."

Resident Students

Resident students come from as far away as Saudi Arabia and South America to be a part of Marywood. They participate in various activities during the week such as picnics, movies and restive dinners. Exploring Southern California, the foreign students experience and share the different aspects of Californian life.

INVOLVEMENT . . . LEADERSHIP . . .

The Girls Athletic Association and the cheerleaders lead the sprites to an exciting year. GAA sponsors the White Elephant Booth for the Christmas Bazaar, the paper drive and the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

The enthusiasm of the cheerleaders and Pep Club during the games inspired the team greatly. The Mission Club helps needy people by collecting contributions. Items collected during the drives are clothing, canned foods and stamps. The club advisor is S. Mary Frances. Terri Esquivel, Lisa Thorman, and Louise Hickman are chairmen.

Several girls are chosen each year to represent Marywood in the Orange County Academic Decathlon. These girls are Janet Poirier, Pat McCormick, Jackie McClure, Nancy Sherer, Cindy Steves, Lizett Stepp. The advisor is Miss Prugger.

The girls receive no grade credit for taking this class, but get their greatest reward by offering an entertaining and informing paper.

Yearbook Staff Opens New Horizons

With a great amount of hard work, a few tears and lots of laughs the 1974 yearbook staff has produced a fascinating book. The memories, pictures, and activities are what make the book meaningful. New ideas, new faces, and new clubs are well related to the theme "New Horizons".

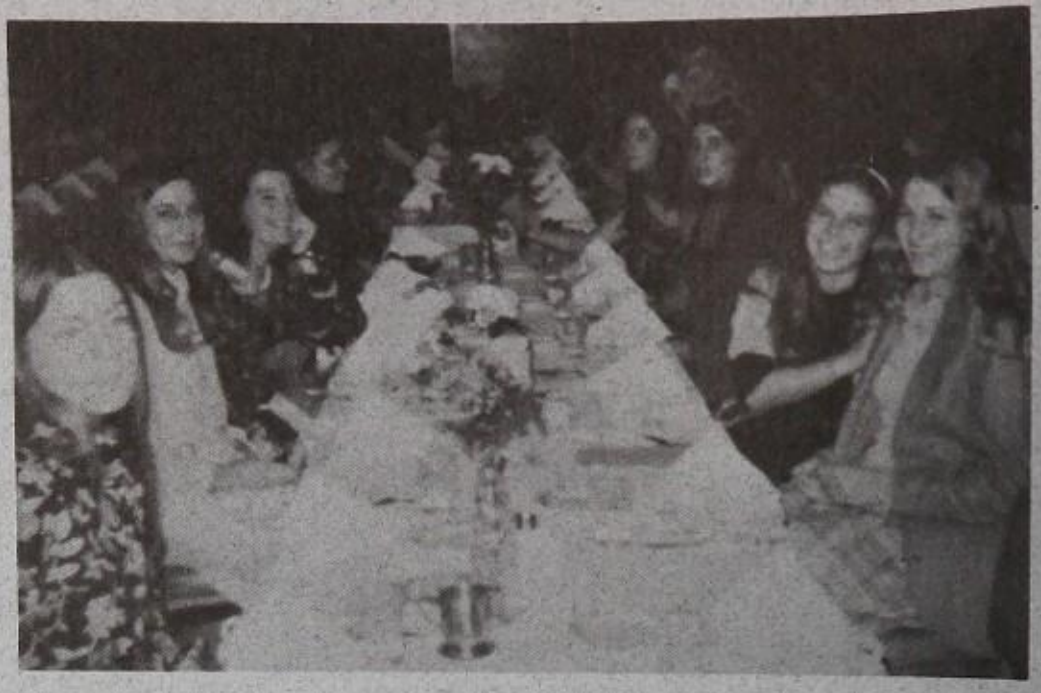
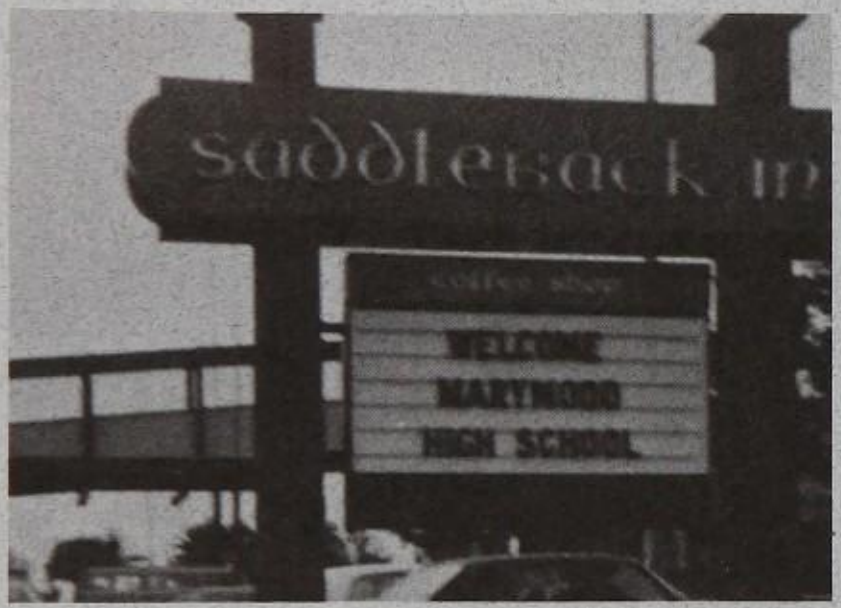
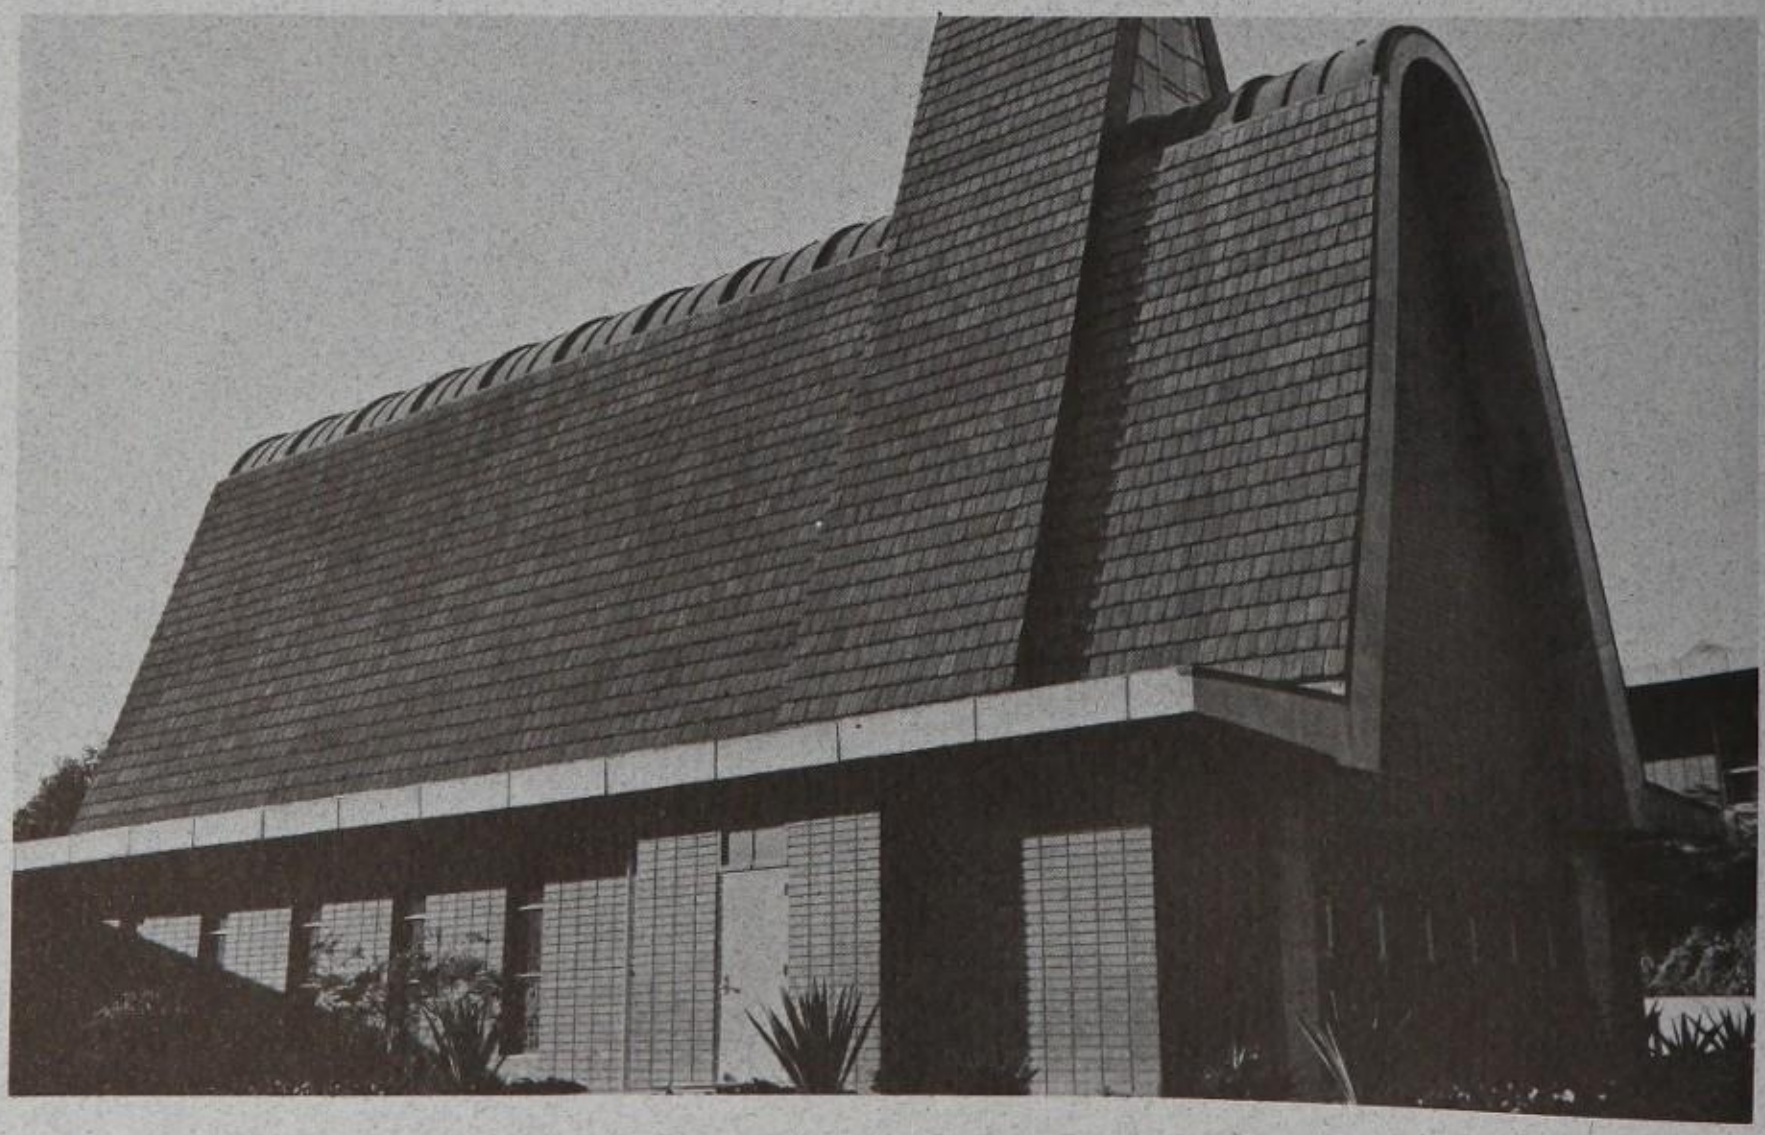
A Scrapbook of Memories

The Juniors treated the Seniors to a special day filled with memories of these past four years. Luncheon was held at the Saddleback Inn after the Mass and the presentation of green and white carnations.

The highlight of the day's festivities was the premiere of the two films made by the Seniors in their Sophomore year.



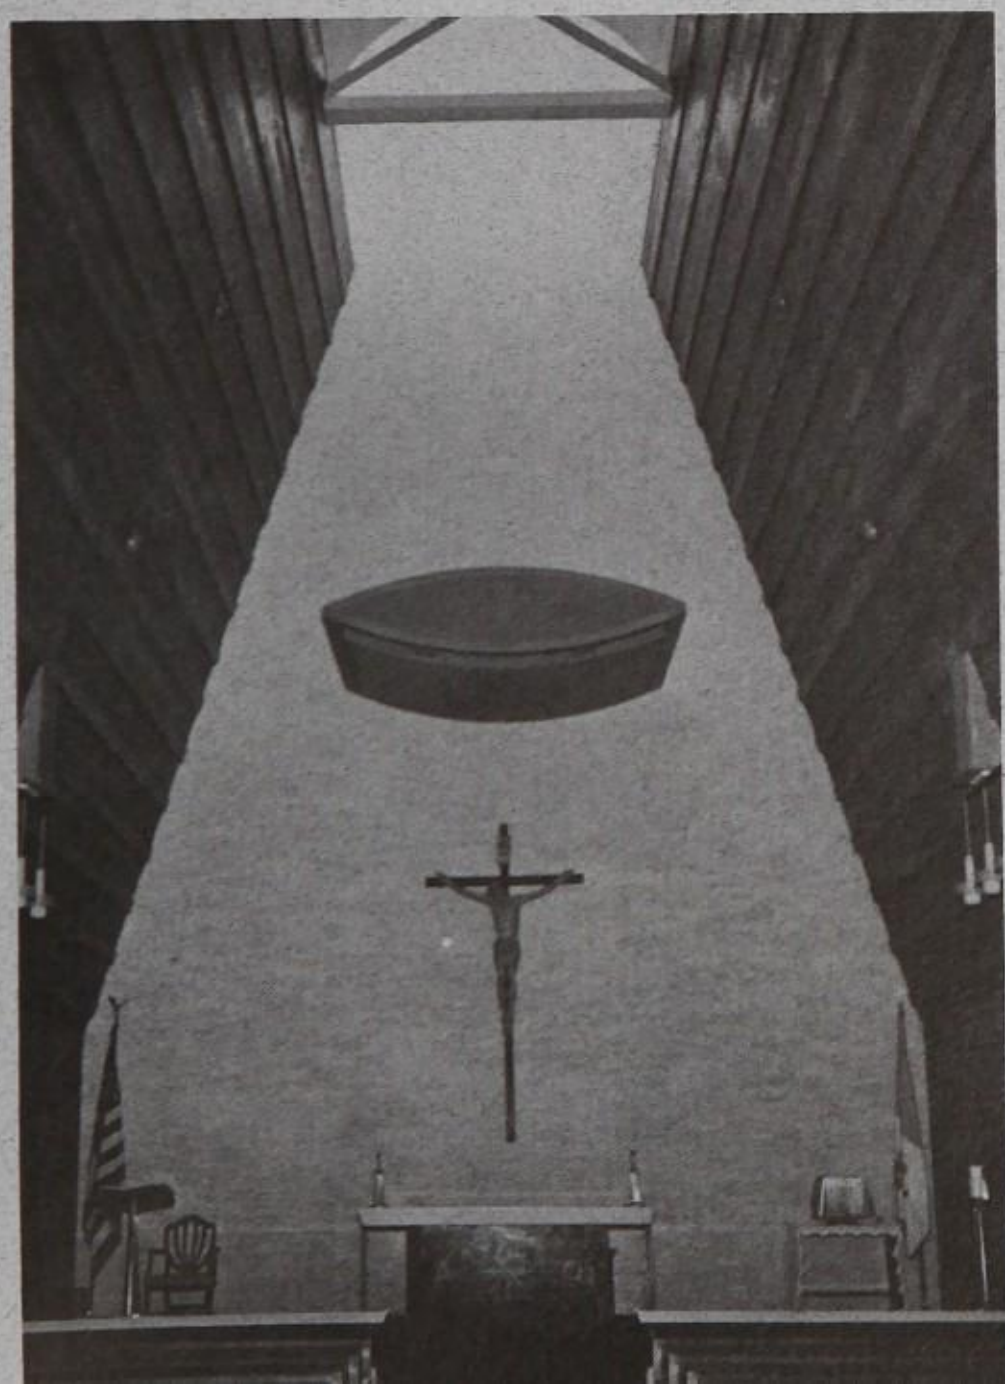




Seniors Treat Sisters on Foundation Day

This October, the Seniors helped the sisters celebrate the founding of the Sisters of Providence in America. The festivities started with a skit honoring Mother Theodore, followed by a Mass and luncheon. Together they found unity through Mary and shared a day that will not be forgotten.

A constant reminder of Foundation Day 1973 is an orange, warm fuzzie in the shape of a rug.



Halloween Day

To keep in the mood of Halloween, on October 31 the halls of Marywood were filled with many mysterious characters. Among the invaders were pumpkin people, storybook characters, famous personalities and visitors from the supernatural.

Senior Philharmonic Kazoo Band

The repetoire of the kazoo band has been enlarged this year to include such pieces as "The Beethoven Minute in G", "When the Saints Come Marching In", and "The War of 1812". The band was under the superior direction of Ms. Almas and featured in the kazoo band was Mrs. Jenkins as star soloist.

Christmas by Moonlight

Saturday, December 15, was an exciting, enchanting night when the A.S.B. Sponsored the annual Christmas Formal.

. This year's theme was "Christmas by Moonlight". The dance was held at the Holiday Inn in Anaheim, and the girls and their escorts danced to the music of "Crossroads". This year's court was led by Queen, Nancy Reid. Top, L. To R.; bid by Nancy Sherer; Queen, Nancy Reid and her escort; Senior Princess, Donna Kries; Senior Princesses and Queen; Bottom, L. Student-Faculty Rivalry?

...Only on the volleyball court! February was brightened by a challenging and exciting "fight" of wits and skill as the faculty tromped the courageous student team. A lot of fanny-falling, a great deal of laughing and a period of all-around fun brought the opposing "rivals" all the closer together.

HOMECOMING . . . Memories, Memories

Thursday, November first was an exciting evening for all, when Servite had its annual Homecoming Game. Competing against their chief rival, St. Paul, the Friars were defeated 3-0 after a tough struggle for victory. Coronation of the Homecoming Queen served as exciting half-time entertainment. This year Marywood was bestowed the honor of representing Servite with the Queen. With Senior Princesses Lesley Attanese and Sheila Barrett and Junior Princess Marianna Western serving Queen Jeanne Wilson, the Homecoming Court was an elegant sight. The following evening held many cherished memories when Servite had a formal dance at the Airporter Inn Hotel in Irvine. Both nights will be remembered for years to come.

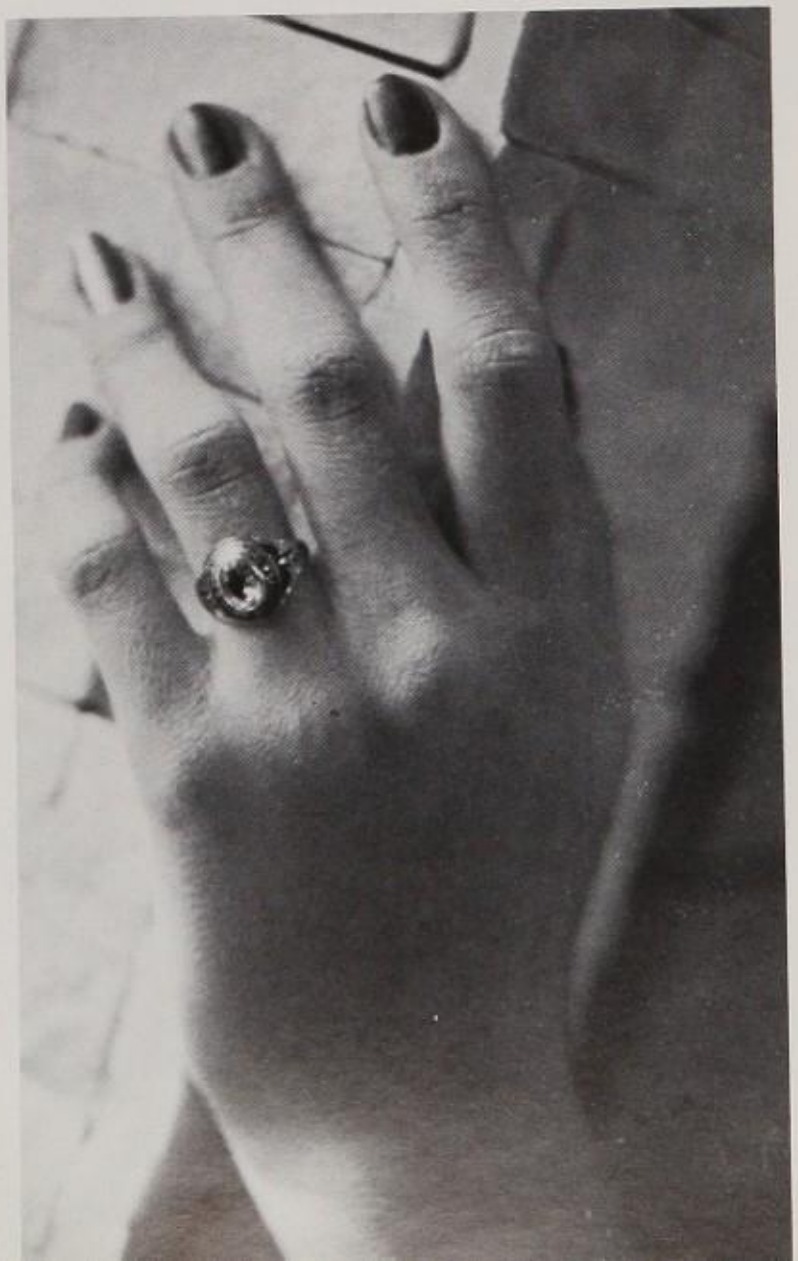
Spirit Months

This year Marywood attempted to promote unity through Spirit Month. The enthusiastic seniors began the year in September. Decorated cars honking their way through the parking lot spread the closeness shared by the seniors throughout the school. During October, junior sunshine was radiated through the delicious oranges hung from the trees. Santa Linda lead the sophomores through the festivities of December. As freshman, the class of '77 decorated the halls in their class colors of maroon and pink.

Happiness Runs in a Circular Motion

"Happiness Runs in a Circular Motion" was the theme as the Class of '75 received their rings on Feb. 14 of this year. Fr. George blessed the rings and Sr. Rosemary and Sr. Margaret Maureen presented the rings to the Juniors. The pledge was written by Marianna Western and the committee was headed by Ellen Knight with JoAnn Echolds and Linda Sullivan assisting her. The Seniors gave the Juniors a party on the patio afterwards in which there was much ring-turning. Everyone indulged on the delicious cake and punch. Whoopee!

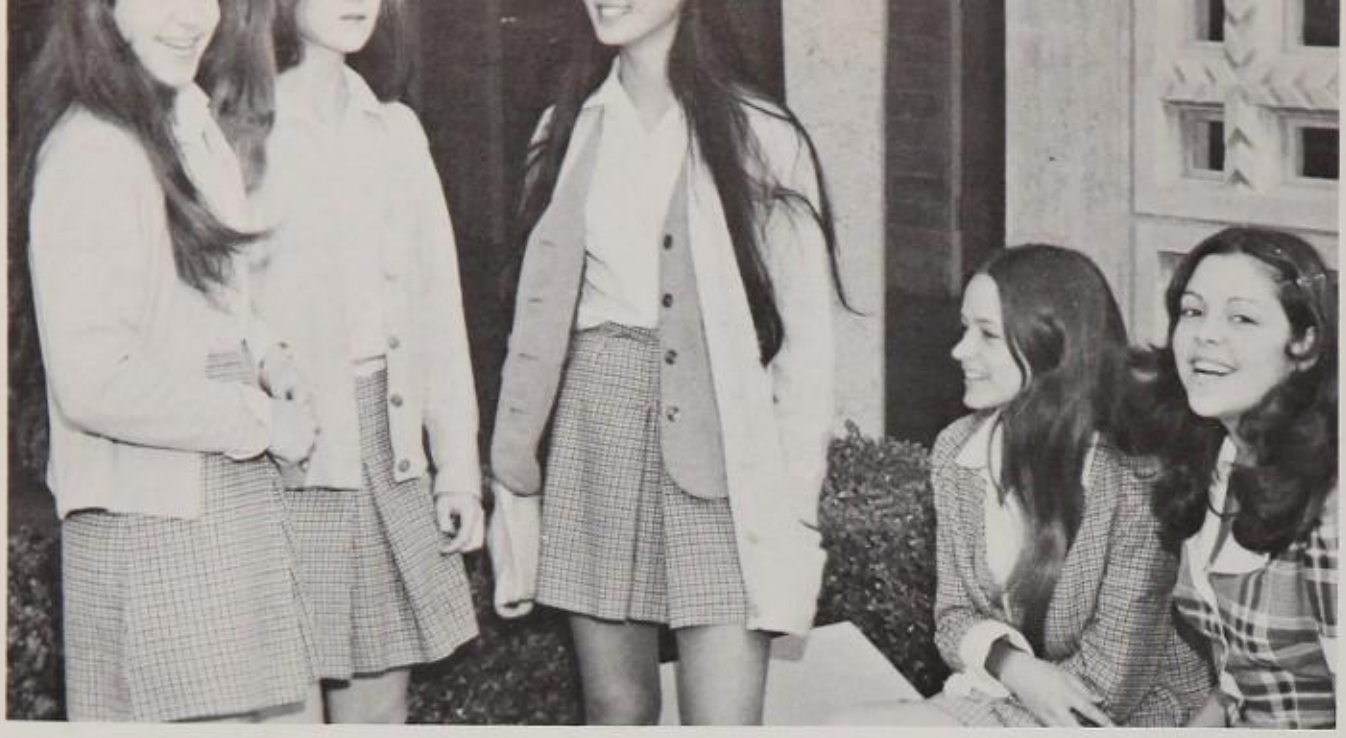
Junior Ring Ceremony



Sadie Hawkins

On Feb. 23 G.A.A. sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. Contests were held and prizes were given out for best costumes and best dancer. Bunny Stickler, Lori Griffen who came as a horse won best costume and Bobbie Huttenhower and her date won for best dancers.

The 50's music was provided by the Rockits. Everyone who came will remember the hillbilly highlight of the year.



STARLIT SEA

Prom night . . . A "STARLIT SEA" . . .

—a beautiful evening of dining and dancing in the surroundings of the Captain's Ballroom of the Princess Louise. Coronation of this year's queen was especially significant since Ms. T.C.Layton, last year's queen, was present to turn over her crown to our reigning sea-wind maiden. The court presided over the festivities, floating in silver stars. Senior princesses were Laura Allen, Rosalind Chao, Patricia Hummel and Ann Manning. Junior princess, Yvonne Maurice, rounded off the court as the evening added a dazzling period to the Social Activities of 1973-74.

Volleyball Team Nets Big Score

The volleyball team this year preformed outstandingly well under the superior coaching of Miss Agajanian. Through many grueling hours of practice, filled with blood, sweat, and tears, the victorious team achieved second place in the all important volleyball tournament. Promising to provide Marywood with future stars on the volleyball court. Junior Varsities Team exhibited good form and spirited natures. We are very proud of the wonderful sportmanship, work and spirit of the girls on this team.

Spirited Teams Moving Onward

The J.V.'s had a highly successful season under the leadership of Misses Helen Mae Almas and Pam Johnson. Their high scoring and tough defense were major assets of their victories. Undefeated, the Junior Varsity, rolled through this year with vitality and team-manship.

Miss Agajanian led the Varsity Team through one of our most spirited and challenging years. The team consisted of ten dedicated and responsible students devoted to sportsmanship and hard work. We are looking forward to next years games, hoping to see the same spirit.

Tennis Team

The tennis team this year, under the skillful coaching of Mrs. Thompson, had a successful season. The team was better and more experienced than in previous years. With rackets and tennis balls flying they proved to other schools that Marywood competition is penetrating. Keep it up Tennis Team! Good luck next year.

i thank you god, for most this amazing day, for the leaping greenly spirits of grass for the grue blue dream of sky, and for everything which is natural,
which is infinite,
which is yes.

Whence you came,
Where you are going,
And to whom you must account.

Congratulations Seniors

Yearbook Staff

Start with a wonderful, Big Sister like you,
And all of your thoughtful ways'.
Stir in some secret's, shared and kept,
And a word of heartful praise
Mix in a bit of cheering up, and favors large and small
Add a good-luck but never good-bye and a friendly little call Stir in a bit of loving care,
And a spell of stormy weather
Warm slowly and carefully through the year's Just doing things together.
Then top it off with a great big smile,
And a sprinkle of dream's come true,
And you'll have the kind of Big Sister
We've known since we met you.
Love ya,
Your "little sisters'"

To the Seniors: Congratulations Graduates!
We're gonna miss ya.

To the Juniors: Don't sweat it, we love you.
To the Freshmen: Good Luck!
To the Faculty: You teached us good.
From the Sophomores, who captivated your hearts.

"Friends, we will remember you,

Think of you, pray for you.

And when another day is through,

We'll still be friends with you."

To the Class of '74, we wish you the best of luck!

sleepy joe

dreaming star, wake up.
there's a new day
waiting breathlessly
on tiptoe
for all you can bring to life.
in the early dawn
the sun must make the first move to meet the day
slowly,
conscientiously;
peacefully unruffled by time,
circumstance or people.
shouldn't you
(day by day)
lift yourself as high as the sky?
and if you happen to fall
over the horizon
time after time,
the burden of life will turn ice
blue with experience.
someday
when you have lived the whole
day of your life
you will see how beautiful your sunset is.
you have to start today though.
someday there may not be another.
even the worst is real.
and if the sun,
who has no mind
can love enough
to die and rise
each and every day for an eternity,
what does your humanity mean if
you say,
"i can't"?
you can't turn your back on love
and haven't you been loved
more than you could ever know?
sleepy joe,
you can make it,
you can
if you want.
